What would you do if a tiny monster slipped out from your sleeve on your way to work one day? Or if the water in your water bottle suddenly turned into grape juice? What if you found you could not move no matter how hard you tried? Monsters, Miracles & Mayonnaise is a collection of short comic stories where tales of unexpected encounters with strange beings from another world sit alongside amusing anecdotes based on bewildering real-life encounters and childhood memories. Imaginative and whimsical, this collection will surprise and amuse even the most cynical reader.

ABOUT THE GRAPHIC NOVELIST

Drewscape or Andrew Tan is a freelance illustrator from Singapore. He illustrates and draws storyboards for advertising agencies as well as for magazines. He enjoys creating comics purely for the fun and challenge of it. And because it's a nice way to share stories with friends.

When Andrew Tan was little, the first Star Wars movie came out and he loved it. Since that time, he has discovered Star Trek, Transformers and Spiderman comics, manga, anime, European comics, art by Ashley Wood, stories by Haruki Murakami, and the strangeness and wonder of living as a human being. Throw all of these together, and you would get might something that would describe the comics Andrew comes up with.

ABOUT THE PUBLISHER

An independent publisher based in Singapore, Epigram Books began as a division of the award-winning design firm, Epigram, but registered as a separate entity in July 2011 in order to strengthen its focus on championing local writing. Epigram Books publishes all manner of fiction—novels, short stories, plays, children's books and poetry. We also reflect Singapore's mad obsession with food by publishing both recipe books and food guides. In 2012, Epigram Books started the Wee Editions imprint to support local artists and photographers through a unique series of compact coffee table books.
