

SCWBI France visits Fleurus Presse

Attention ALL illustrators and writers!

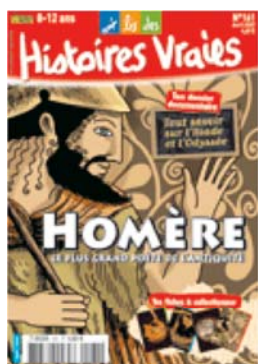

The Society of Children's Book Writers & Illustrators France and Fleurus Presse offers you an opportunity to break into a wide age-range of children's publishing. Whether you are already published or just getting started on your career, working for quality French children's magazines will expand your repertoire of subjects and build your portfolio. Work with a fast turnover alongside your long-term projects – and you'll get paid properly for it! At the very least, attending this event should give you some productive feedback on your work.

Fleurus Presse publishes twelve magazines for children from 0-14 including Abricot, Les P'tites Filles à la Vanille, Les P'tites Sorcières, Je lis déjà. To learn more, please visit their website:
www.fleuruspresse.fr

Editorial director Béatrice Guthart and her team will present (in French) the magazines and look at portfolios, so please bring a selection of your work to show (published or not), or just come along to listen, participate and make new contacts.

When: Thursday, October 25
2:30 – 5:30pm

Where: Fleurus Presse
6-8, rue Jean-Antoine de Baïf
75013 Paris (a 10 minute
walk from metro:
Bibliothèque F.

Mitterrand)

To Register:

Early registration ends October 8
10 euros, SCBWI members and students
15 euros, nonmembers

After October 8
15 euros, SCBWI members and students
20 euros, nonmembers

For more information, contact Elisabeth at: robinson.elisabeth@wanadoo.fr

The Society of Children's Book Writers & Illustrators France
www.scbwifrance.com